Empire Brewery.

HENNING PETERS, late of the Lion Brewery, is now prepared to supply the Trade and families with all kinds of Beer, Ale and Porter.

The Brewery is situated on Spring Ridge, and is built over a well of pure, ever running spring water. This fact enables me to manufacture the very finest brands, equal to any imported Ale, Beer and Porter.

The machinery used is of latest pattern, the ingredients are pure water, malt and hops, and a trial is only necessary to convince that the brands are the finest manufactured in the Province.

All orders for city supply or for shipment to Island or Mainland points will receive prompt attention and a satisfactory article furnished.

The attention of intending Assurers is called to the advantages specially offered by this Association.

The Association merits the confidence that the public bestow on it, as the following figures show:

The security offered to Policy holders is UNSURPASSED by any Company doing business in Canada.

It has No Scramble of business, but the well established lines, hence the Policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

The Assurance Fund, as a trust fund, is kept intact, and is not touched to pay current expenses.

Its cash statements show in every item of income and loss expansion.

Its POSITION IN ASCERTAINED ANNUALLY FOR a definite valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its LIBERALITY HAS BEEN UNEXCELLED in the history of Insurance in Canada.

Its Policies are INDISPUTABLE after three years, and NON-FORFEITABLE after two years' existence.

Its PROFITS ARE DISTRIBUTED upon an equitable basis. The profits to the class of policy holders are enhanced to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the Uniform Bonus plan of distribution.

Liberal Conditions as to Residence and Travel.

NEWS BY CABLE.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

Suspicious Circumstances.

Special to THE TIMES.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—Baron Motrea died in December, 1883, and the Baroness in June last. Both died suddenly. Two of their attendants, a man and a woman, named respectively Thomas and Charpetel, pretended to be spiritualists and gained the mastery of them. The Baron's relatives were kept in ignorance of his death. Wine and provisions were distributed as usual among the people of the neighborhood, in order to hide the fact of his death from them.

An American in Prison

Special to THE TIMES.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—An American named Link was arrested here about a month ago on a charge of trying to sell worthless Mexican bonds, and was sent to prison. The prison officials ill-treated him, with a view of forcing him to make a confession, and would not allow him to see his wife, although his innocence has since been proved. He was detained a month and has just been released at the instance of Mr. Morton, the United States Minister.

The American Minister.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The Times, commenting on the address made yesterday by Minister Phelps, on the occasion of the opening of the Workmen's Club at Rugby, says he is treading with success in the footsteps of Lowell. He has readiness in the use of speech, and the remarkable power of interesting his auditors on public occasions, and he may be congratulated on his manner of avoiding utterances of anything that could give offence to either political party or to the country as a whole.

Germany in Africa.

Special to THE TIMES.

BERLIN, Sept. 3.—Germans will arm the proposed military stations in Zanzibar with Krupp guns. The German traveller Weiss, who has just arrived from Zanzibar, has in his possession a treaty with the Sultan of Pangani, which is north of Usarage, and under German protection.

French Embassy at Constantinople.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The attitude of the French embassy at Constantinople, regarding the mission of Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, is aggressive. Further advices confirm the statement that France will not recognize any settlement of the Egyptian question which fails to satisfy French interests in Egypt.

Cholera in France.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Three deaths from cholera are reported from Mallemfort, France, six from Montagnac, and several from other places in the department of Herault. One death from cholera has been reported from Brendorf, Transylvania. Cholera has also appeared at Algiers.

The Armstrong Sensation.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Mr. Stead, editor of the Pall-Mall Gazette, telegraphs from Switzerland that he alone is responsible in the Eliza Armstrong case; that Mrs. Jarrett was an unwilling agent, and that he will return to London at once and answer for himself, and that he is certain to clear himself from all blame.

Barkis is Willing.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The Times, editorially, states that it has been officially intimated at the Foreign office that Germany is willing to refer the Caroline dispute to the arbitration of friendly powers.

Gen. Babington Killed.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Lieut. General John H. Melville Babington, of the British army, was killed to-day while shooting grouse in the County of Dumfries, Scotland, by the accidental discharge of his gun.

Must not Demonstrate.

Special to THE TIMES.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—The French government has issued an order, prohibiting an anti-German demonstration in France by Spanish residents.

Sales of Austrian Grain

Special to THE TIMES.

VIENNA, Sept. 3.—Business in the corn market yesterday resulted in the sale of 160,000 cwt. of wheat and 80,000 cwt. of barley.

England in Afghan

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Three regiments in Herat ordered to march. The natives of Candahar openly desire England to occupy that city.

Slight Decrease.

Special to THE TIMES.

MADRID, Sept. 3.—Throughout Spain cholera and 1900 deaths.

The Cholera

Special to THE TIMES.

TOULON, Sept. 3.—Fourteen persons died from cholera in this city during the past night.

NAPLES, Sept. 3.—It is officially denied that there is any cholera in this city.

Russian Banks

Special to THE TIMES.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 3.—The Imperial Bank of Russia has opened branches in Khiva and Bokahara.

The Brave Colonel Ouimet.

The constituents of Lieutenant-Col. Ouimet presented him with an address on the 27th ultimo, in which the following reference was made to Riel's case: "We have learned with great joy that your sympathies are with Riel. We hope you will employ your influence to have the sentence of capital punishment commuted." In reply Colonel Ouimet said the hanging of Riel would be a great political blunder. He promised to be in the House of Commons the same friend of the Metis that he had been in the Northwest.

"Ayer's Ague Cure, when used according to directions, is warranted to eradicate from the system all forms of malarial disease, such as Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, Intermittent, Remittent and Bilious Fevers and disorders of the liver. Try it. The experiment is a safe one, and will cost you nothing if a cure is not effected.

GENERAL DESPATCHES.

The Hanging of Preston.

Special to THE TIMES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The Spanish columns of the Panama Star and Herald of August 20, contain a report of the proceedings of the court-martial that met on the 17th inst., to try Pedro Preston, who has since been executed. Four witnesses were brought before the court and declared that Preston was the principal author of the destruction of Colon, on the 31st March last. These were Juan Bertrano, an Italian, Clement Dupuy, Acting Superintendent of the Panama Railway, Hugh Deitrich, a German, and Wm. Connor agent of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co., in Colon. These four gentlemen, after having given their evidence against Preston were confronted with him. Those different declarations show that Preston was the author of the fire in Colon, and although he strongly denied all the charges made against him, actually naming persons who could testify as to his innocence, he nevertheless did not lay the blame on any other person, nor did he say his followers had not committed the crime. The chairman of the court-martial ordered the witnesses named by Preston to be brought into court, so that they should make their statement. After the lapse of an hour the court was informed that all the persons named by Preston were not to be found on the isthmus, as they had left after the burning of Colon. In view of this, and as all the witnesses agreed on one point, that Preston was the author of the fire, the court after having heard prisoners defense, ordered the room to be cleared, and then deliberated as to the sentence they should pronounce. All votes but one were for hanging Preston at once. Death warrant was signed, prisoner called, and he was informed of his sentence. He heard the sentence read with great composure. Up to his last moment he had a priest by his side. When upon the scaffold Preston spoke a few words, exhorting upon Columbians to believe him innocent of such atrocious crimes. Notwithstanding all his repeated protests of innocence, there was but one voice of unanimous approval, when the cap was removed from under his feet, and the body left to swing on the scaffold. Preston was hanged soon after midday on the 18th ult. Sentence was signed at 9.30 in the evening of the 17th ult. The execution was witnessed by an immense crowd of all colors and nationalities, the greater part of which never witnessed such a scene before. Death seems to have been instantaneous, for no show of life was apparent.

Mails at Panama &c

Special to THE TIMES.

NANAIMO, Sept. 3.—The leading topic here at present is the continued arrival of Pacific mail steamers without the customary New York and San Francisco mails which causes much inconvenience in the commercial community. The New York mail of the 1st and 10th inst., came via Jamaica by Royal Mail steamers.

In Peru a great deal of comment has been excited by the publication of a proclamation, signed by Gen. Caceres. Caceres declares his only object is to restore peace and tranquility to Peru, on a basis of her future honor and happiness, and that when his design is accomplished he will quietly retire to private life, satisfied with having complied with his duty as a good citizen. He states that on various occasions he has proposed measures which, if accepted, would have generally brought about the desired end, but that he has been met with resistance and even contempt, as when his commissioner, sent to Lima from Mollendo, on the United States steamer Shenandoah, was even refused hearing. Important military operations are now being carried out in the north, in addition a detachment of six hundred men stationed at San Pedro, deserting the rebel garrison, joining Iquitos. A division of one thousand soldiers, horse, foot and artillery, under Gen. Ramerez, chief of the general staff, was sent up to Pacasmayo a few days ago.

The Chinese Riot.

Special to THE TIMES.

CHEYENNE, Wy., Sept. 3.—News from Rock Springs received this forenoon indicate a worse state of affairs than reported last night. Every Chinaman, over five hundred in number, has been driven out of town. Fifteen dead Chinamen have thus far been discovered. As many more dead bodies are probably in the ruins of fifty houses belonging to railroad company, and five more owned by Chinamen, were burned. The Chinese are camping in the hills west of the town with food, afraid to go to Green River City, distant about ten miles. Gov. Warren is now at Rock Springs, with General Superintendent Dickinson and Sheriff Winchester of the Western Division Union Pacific railroad. Arrests are expected and anticipated. Food will be sent to the starving Chinamen in the hills by the authorities.

The President's Movements.

Special to THE TIMES.

ADIRONDACKS, N. Y., Sept. 3.—President Cleveland and family left last night for morning, when he will leave for Albany and Washington via Plattsburg.

Frosts in Quebec.

Special to THE TIMES.

QUEBEC, Sept. 3.—For nearly a week past frosts have occurred nightly, North of this city, at Stoneham, the last night a heavy drop is reported totally destroyed.

Appeal of Riel

Special to THE TIMES.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 2.—Riel's appeal case came up before the Queen's Bench this morning. The prisoner's counsel objected to papers purporting to be records of the case brought from Regina. These records are shown to have no seal, and are not properly certified. The counsel contended for the original record of the court at Regina, and that the prisoner should be present before the appeal could be tried. The judges decided this must be done before the appeal was argued. Friday next is set for the trial of the case.

The Grants.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. Grant and Mrs. Sartoris were passengers this morning on the North German Lloyd steamer Ferra. They are bound for Southampton, the two first named on a visit and the last named going to her home. Col. Fred Grant and U. S. Grant, Jr., Rev. Dr. Newman, Mr. Corbin and a few other friends were at the dock to see the party off. Mrs. Grant has decided to remain in this city for two or three days before leaving for Paris's Station.

NOT YET ARRIVED.

The Yosemite not yet at Ladner's Landing—Where is She?

Press Dispatch.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 3.—The steamer Teaser, from Victoria, arrived at Ladner's Landing at 1.30 a. m. to-day. One of the passengers reports that the Yosemite passed them at 2 p. m. yesterday near the ten-mile point, but that they saw no further signs of her. The weather is somewhat clearer to-day, but still thick.

LATER.

The Yosemite arrived at Ladner's Landing, all right, at ten minutes before one o'clock this afternoon. She was expected to arrive at New Westminster in an hour afterwards.

LATEST.

The Yosemite arrived at New Westminster at ten minutes past two. She lay in the gulf all night, the passengers, like Mark Tapley, bent on enjoying themselves under the adverse circumstances. The fog was very dense. There was a large crowd at the wharf to meet the Victorians. The games took place yesterday and were very successful, as was also the ball last night. The Yosemite returns to night.

Resisting Chinese Labor.

ROCK SPRINGS, Wy. T., Sept. 2.—The largest coal mines in the entire Union Pacific system are at Rock Springs, 250 miles west of Cheyenne. The company recently imported a large number of Chinamen to take the places of white men. This afternoon the entire force of white miners, about 150 strong, organized, and, armed with shotguns, marched to Chinatown. After firing a volley into the air, they reloaded and ordered the Chinamen to leave. The order was obeyed at once, the Chinamen fleeing to the hills like a drove of sheep, closely pursued by the miners, who fired several volleys at the fugitives with fatal effect. The Chinese quarters were then set on fire, and thirty-nine houses owned by the company destroyed with their contents. The miners next visited the various mines in the camp, unscathed all the Chinamen at work there, and bid them flee for their lives. Of 400 Chinamen here this morning, not one remains. All are in the adjacent hills heading for Green river, fourteen miles west. Seven were killed outright by shots fired by the miners, and many were wounded. It is said that several feeble and helpless from disease perished in the flames. Sheriff Young arrived from Green river on a special train this evening with a posse of deputies, but he was too late to prevent the mob from carrying out their plans. The miners quietly dispersed after making sure of the departure of the Celestials, and all is quiet now.

Doings of the Workingmen.

ROME, N. Y., Sept. 2.—The State Labor Assembly, in session here to-day, listened to reports of various topics, chiefly of a local nature, and passed resolutions boycotting certain firms in Troy and Albany; calling on the State Legislature to regulate elevator charges in Buffalo and New York; asking the public to smoke only cigars having the international blue label, and recommending the formation of a State central labor organization. The Committee on Records reported at length the course of the governor and members of the legislature in regard to bills effecting the laboring classes, and closed with recommendations as to the position which working men should assume toward them, based upon what their respective courses were found to be. Governor Hill was found "entitled to the thanks of organized labor."

Election of Officers.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—The National Convention of Masonic Lodge Relief today elected the following officers: President, Martin Collins of St. Louis; Vice-President, W. R. Hope of New York and J. Mitchell of Montreal; Secretary, Dr. D. F. Hennington of Baltimore; Treasurer, Wm. De La Matyr of New York; Advisory Board, W. B. Isaacs of Virginia; Isaac Hirsch of South Carolina, A. J. Hitzine of Wisconsin. St. Louis was selected as the next place of meeting.

A FINE COUNTRY

The Great Mineral Wealth Opened up by the C. P. R.

Mr. Edward Hardiman, of Montreal, has just returned to Ottawa from a journey to Banff, N. W. T., to inspect some coal mines discovered on the property of Mr. McLeod Stewart, of Ottawa, and to report on their quality and resources. He expresses himself as agreeably surprised with the C. P. R. construction and fittings, and states that the bridges are solidly built of the best materials. The line compares favorably with any American line, that he has travelled on. Speaking of the curves, he says they are nothing out of the way, and even necessary to avoid enormous outlay. The whole system is truly Canadian and a credit to the Dominion. The coal mines are situated in the Cascade mountains, near Banff, and contain any quantity of anthracite coal of a good quality as that found in Pennsylvania. The coal is cropping up in large quantities all over the country, the bed extending all around the Cascades, down to the Hudson Bay property, three or four miles below Banff. There are four or five large seams, one eight feet, another five, and another four feet, in thickness. Millions of tons are ready to be dug out. Mr. Stewart is at present in Chicago for the purpose of procuring a company to work the mines. The people all along the line are extremely glad about the discovery of the mines, and are anxious that work should be commenced at once. At present anthracite coal sells at Winnipeg for $17. Now counting 1000 miles transit at a half cent a ton and about five dollars a ton to deliver it on the cars, the Banff coal can be sold at eleven or twelve dollars a ton in Winnipeg. The mines are about three hundred yards from the Canadian Pacific railway track, and the cost of transit will amount to hardly anything." At Banff Mr. Hardiman inspected a sulphur spring possessing the most copious supply of water in the Dominion. The town is beautifully situated in the Cascade mountains, on the Bow river, and already a projection is being formed to build a hotel there, and it will probably be a thriving town at an early date.

One settler owns a fine clay deposit, admirably adapted for making fire bricks; another exhibited a nugget of silver found in the mountains, whilst there is a rush to the spot beyond the Selkirks where gold has been discovered.

Altogether Mr. Hardiman predicts a fine future for the country.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

S. F. Post: Counsel for HIBBS, the defaulting ex-Postmaster now under arrest at Victoria, are making desperate efforts to prevent his extradition. They want him adjudged unmailable matter.

Two million dollars are said to be in the Bank of England awaiting the heirs of one BULÓN BROWN. And there are several million Browns at large awaiting less than a million dollars.

MR. FRED. DORE, the chief agent of Canada at the Antwerp exhibition, will shortly visit the Dominion to assist in the arrangement of the various provincial exhibits which will represent Canada at the Colonial exhibition in London next year.

THE Queen, in recognition of the services rendered to the Aid Society for the sick and wounded soldiers and sailors by PRINCESS LOUISE, the DUCHESS OF ALBANY, and PRINCESS FREDERICA, has conferred on them the decoration of the Red Cross Society, a badge instituted by the Queen for the decoration of distinguished nurses.

THE Pima Indians, an Arizona tribe, will raise 400,000 bushels of wheat this season on their reservation. How is this? We have always been told that the Canadian Indian policy was far superior to the American; and yet here is a bloody Indian war scarcely off our hands, while these hot-blooded southern Indians have beaten their tomahawks into ploughshares and have forgotten the arts of war. But the Arizona red men have no DEWDNEY or "Old Tomorrow" to set them a bad example.

LORD CARNARVON, since his acceptance of the viceroyalty, seems determined, if possible, to conquer the Irish with their own favorite weapon. In replying to an address of welcome from the Royal Hibernian Academy of Arts, he said that it would be impossible for anyone who was for a time on Irish soil not to recognize the natural and instinctive talent which prevaded all classes, and, without any disparagement to the Anglo-Saxon race, it was impossible to draw a distinction other than adverse to his own nationality in this matter.

THE cable announces that several of PARNELL'S parliamentary supporters will decline nomination. Serving the country in the British House of Commons is not a profitable pursuit, particularly when a man's constituents demand that he shall remain in chronic opposition. Most of the Irish nationalists are poor men, and the marvel is how they contrive to live while discharging their parliamentary duties. Hence the proposition to raise a fund for their payment. A British parliamentarian cannot vote himself an allowance at the end of the session, which is where the Canadian legislator has the advantage of him by a large majority.

IN a conversation recently on immigration prospects, MR. GEO. STEPHEN, President of the C. P. R., said they did not expect much this year, but a fair basis had been laid for the future. Continuing, he remarked: "The great desideratum in the Northwest is a change in the land regulations. At present the Dominion Parliament prohibits a settler on government land from mortgaging his quarter section for over $500, and limits him to paying interest not exceeding six per cent. The rate of interest is too low to induce capitalists to assist in settling the Canadian Northwest lands. In Dakota and others of the United States, similarly situated to our Northwest, capital commands eight and ten per cent, and it will not go for investment to our side of the line for six per cent. Some of the choicest parts of Ontario were settled by pioneers who paid ten, twelve and fifteen per cent. for money, and they had little difficulty in repaying their loans at those rates. The government would greatly stimulate the efforts of colonization companies, and promote the rapid settlement of the Northwest, if they would secure legislation allowing the settler on government lands to mortgage his homestead for, say, $600, and to pay interest not exceeding, say, eight per cent. Under such legislation, I have no doubt, large blocks of capital would be employed to further immigration and colonization in our Northwest. The Scotch Crofters, for instance, might then be transferred bodily to the Northwest and would be found a very desirable class of immigrants."

DECLINED WITH THANKS.

The rescue of the fallen is a work of charity worthy of all commendation, but we must put it behind the work of preventing the weak from falling. So long as society tolerates, not to say cultivates the social conditions which expose unfortunate men and women to temptation, so long will the rescue of the fallen be a never-ending and burdensome though charitable task. We fear that the promoters of morality movements often fail to attach sufficient importance to this view of the case. Imperfect legislation for the protection of female virtue has been one of the outcomes of the Pall Mall Gazette's London crusade, but the difference between immorality at seventeen and the same thing at eighteen years of age is so slight as not to perceptibly affect the volume of the evil. Another outcome of the same movement is even less acceptable to Canadians. We refer to the proposition to export to this country depraved women, in the hope of reforming them. The line must be drawn at this point. The exportation to Canada by foolish friends of individual inebriates, and other ne'er-do-weels as though there were no whisky here, we may not control, but we ought to be able to forbid the transportation to our shores of thieves and prostitutes, old and young. Scores, if not hundreds, of our prison cells are already tenanted by such importations, whose failure to reform bears testimony to the truism that human beings do not change their appetites when they change their skies. We have placed a barrier before the Chinese for good and sufficient reasons, and similar reasons will justify us in interfering with the business of the pseudo-philanthropists of other countries, who are more anxious to relieve themselves of their legitimate burdens, or to gain notoriety and pelf, than they are to rescue the perishing. Without wishing to place a stumbling block in the way of any fellow creature who seeks our shores in the ordinary way in the hope of finding more favorable moral or material environments, we must protest against the organized attempts of a false philanthropy to convert our country into a dumping ground for social refuse. We are not responsible for the crimes of European society, and European society has no right to act as though we were.

UTILIZING THE SEWAGE.

The proper disposition of sewage is the great sanitary question of the age in all civilized countries. To deal with the sewage of the city of London it has been proposed by SIR J. BAZALGETTE to convey it to the sea at a cost of $100,000,000, but as the annual value of the sewage is estimated at $5,000,000, an effort is being made to perfect a process by which it can be utilized for agricultural purposes, and thus save this great waste. The new system proposes to precipitate all the solid matter at once, and also to take out most of the organic matters held in solution, leaving the effluent water to flow on practically pure. The residue—and this is the turning point in the whole sewage question—is treated by a simple and practically self-acting process for the extraction of excessive moisture, and is then available as a manure, alike valuable, portable and absolutely inoffensive. Experiments are to be made in the suburban district of Tottenham, where permission has been granted by the local board to erect the necessary plant to treat the sewage of that large and populous district by the new process. It is certainly to be hoped that the system will prove all that is expected of it by the projectors of the undertaking.

A WARNING.

The small-pox scare is said to be costing the city of Montreal hundreds of thousands, if not millions, of dollars. Like Victoria, a good deal of its stir and business activity is due to the large number of pleasure seekers and tourists who annually visit it. It is a principal point on the American grand tour. But since small-pox broke out, Montreal is given a wide berth; its wholesale trade is diminished and driven elsewhere, perhaps never to return, and an enormous expenditure is being entailed to suppress the disease. Montreal filth is very like Victoria filth—both are epidemic breeders. What has happened in Montreal may happen in Victoria, and, perhaps, like the beautiful city on Mount Royal, Victoria requires a scourging of some kind before her people will take warning. An epidemic here would simply flatten out everything, and would cost our people much more than the expensive system of sewerage that is proposed, to say nothing of the increased number of hillocks that would be raised at Ross Bay.

THE ladies in some places in the States are wearing white and black bunting twisted round their straw hats as mourning for GEN. GRANT. A popular store in Boston used black twine to tie up its bundles until after the funeral. As a contemporary remarks, "it is hard to tell, sometimes where the mourning ends and advertising begins."

A TELEGRAM to a Winnipeg paper says that it is expected that GENERAL MIDDLETON will within a few days leave for British Columbia for the purpose of looking after the defences of that province, and selecting a proper location for the new battery. CAPT. PETERS, who was in command of the detachment of "A" Battery during the Northwest campaign, is likely to command the new battery with the rank of Major. Coal Harbor is mentioned as the most probable location for the new battery.

ROBUST HEALTH

Is not always enjoyed by those who seem to possess it. The taint of corrupted blood may be secretly undermining the constitution. In time, the poison will certainly show its effects, and with all the more virulence the longer it has been allowed to permeate the system. Each pimple, sty, boil, skin disorder and sense of unnatural lassitude, or languor, is one of Nature's warnings of the consequences of neglect.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only remedy that can be relied upon, in all cases, to eradicate the taint of hereditary disease and the special corruptions of the blood. It is the only alterative that is sufficiently powerful to thoroughly cleanse the system of Scrofulous and Mercurial impurities and the pollution of Contagious Diseases. It also neutralizes the poisons left by Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever, and enables rapid recuperation from the enfeeblement and debility caused by these diseases.

Myriads of Cures

Achieved by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, in the past forty years, are attested, and there is no blood disease, at all possible of cure, that will not yield to it. Whatever the ailments of this class, and wherever found, from the scurvy of the Arctic circle to the "veldt-sores" of South Africa, this remedy has afforded health to the sufferers by whom it was employed. Druggists everywhere can cite numerous cases, within their personal knowledge, of remarkable cures wrought by it, where all other treatment had been unavailing. People will do well to

Trust Nothing Else

than AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Numerous crude mixtures are offered to the public as "blood purifiers," which only allure the patient with the pretense of many cheap doses, and, with which it is folly to experiment while disease is steadily becoming more deep-seated and difficult of cure. Some of these mixtures do much lasting harm. Bear in mind that the only medicine that can radically purify the vitiated blood is A ROMANTIC INCIDENT.

A Feeble Old Mother in Search of a Daughter—At the Wedding.

[New York Herald.]

Among the emigrants who arrived at Castle Garden the other day, was an old woman, bent with age. She had lived her allotted three-score years and ten and her feebleness made her an object of universal pity. On the steamer she occupied stifling quarters in the steerage, but her companions were kind to her, and the voyage was made as endurable as possible. She said that her name was Janowski and that she came from Cracow, Poland. She told an interpreter that she had a daughter somewhere in the states, near the Atlantic ocean, but where she did not know. The government officials finally decided to send her back to Poland under the law which prohibits the landing of emigrants who are likely to become public burdens. The old woman protested, but in vain.

The day for sailing arrived, and she was told that she must go on board of the vessel. Age had made her childish, and she sank upon the rude wooden seats and cried as if her heart would break. An official gathered up her bundle of clothing, when the shawl which was wrapped around it became loose and the clothing fell out. An envelope, torn and soiled, fell on the floor, and the official picked it up. It bore the postmark of Newark, N. J., and was addressed to the old woman in Cracow, Poland.

"Where did you get this?" asked the interpreter of the old woman.

"My daughter Jennie sent that," she replied, sadly. "She is my only child, and all that I have on earth."

It was decided to take Mrs. Janowski to Newark and endeavor to find her daughter. A gentleman, who had become interested in the old woman, volunteered to go with her, and next morning they started. Arrived at Newark inquiries were made, and a Hebrew woman was found who said that she knew Jennie very well.

"Come this way, I will show you," she said.

The trio proceeded up Canal street until they came to a frame house in front of which a crowd had assembled.

"Jennie is to be married to-day," said the guide. "The ceremony is just being performed."

The old woman forced her way through the crowd in the narrow entry. In the neat but poorly furnished room the wedding guests had assembled. The bride, attired in a dress of spotless lawn, trimmed with fresh daisies, stood beside the groom, a fine-looking young Hebrew, awaiting the words which would make them one. A commotion was heard in the hallway, and, as the guests at the door separated, the bride uttered a cry of "Mother!" and the old woman rushed into her arms. The scene between the mother and daughter was very affecting, and tears of joy were shed at the nuptial feast.

The Granger and the Railroads.

[Age of Steel.]

A contemporary wants to know, on behalf of the railroads, whether we are to have "any more granger legislation." For our part, we prefer a little more granger and a little less monopoly legislation.

That bugaboo of the railroads, the granger, is neither the fool nor the madman he has so often been represented to be. His ideas about railroads may be a little crude, and under some circumstances mischievous, but as a rule they are more nearly in accord with right and strict business honesty than those of such men as Gould, Huntington, and a score of other notorious people. For instance, the granger could never bring himself to believe that in selling a bushel of corn he is entitled to sell four bushels. But a railroad or telegraph company of the modern type has no hesitancy in asking the public to pay dividends on a capital four times in excess of the investment in plant. Of course the granger doesn't know much about such things, but despite his ignorance he is able to grasp the idea that it is not a fair dealing.

To illustrate in a single instance how the public are made to suffer by the rapacity of large corporations, we need only refer to the case of the Western Union Telegraph company. Here is a corporation capitalized at $80,000,000, or four times what it ought to be capitalized at. For the quarter ending December 31 it will pay a dividend of 1½ per cent, and add $120,000 to its surplus of $4,150,000. This is equal to more than 6 per cent, quarterly on legitimate investments in the dullest times, and must make the poor operators whose wages are being reduced from $70 to $60 a month feel that the Western Union is a great and good and humanizing agency.

On the whole we do not think it likely that those journals friendly to the railroads will make much out of their war on the granger. The granger has too many friends among the manufacturers, merchants and shippers in the large cities, who in common with himself are plagued with high transportation rates. And while no particular class or interest is likely to turn against the railroads, hard times and high and unyielding freight rates are liable to stimulate unfriendly legislative interest, especially in the north west.

A Judge on "Respectable" Swindlers.

[Chicago Journal.]

Judge Beadle, of Philadelphia, in imposing sentence upon an embezzler of long-established good reputation, delivered himself of some sentiments that are worthy of adoption by judges generally. He said: "There is what I regard as a most unfortunate impression abroad that, because a man has had a good reputation and has been surrounded by every advantage that education and association give, when he commits a crime all these circumstances should be taken in mitigation of punishment. I admit no such doctrine. When a poor, ignorant man who has never had these advantages comes in, I have great sympathy for him. I have great sympathy for a man who steals a ham to supply the wants of his family or steals shoes to put upon his children's feet. Why should sympathy be shown him who trades upon his good reputation to enable him to defraud the people?"

The Bee as a Barometer.

[Chicago Times.]

A German, who has studiously watched every movement of the honey-bee, asserts that they are excellent storm-warners. He says that on the approach of storms these busy bees become very irritable, and will at once attack any one, even their usual attendant approaching their hives. A succession of instances are given in which the barometer and hygrometer foretold a storm, the bees remaining quiet, and no storm occurred, or the instruments gave no intimation of a storm, but the bees for hours before were irritable, and it came.

A Drunkard's Friend.

[Bill Nye.]

It is singular how drunken people will come hundreds of miles to converse with me. I have often been alluded to as the drunkard's friend." Men have been known to get intoxicated and come a long distance to talk with me on some subject, and then they would lean up against me and converse by the hour. A drunken man never seems to get tired of talking with me. As long as I am willing to hold each a man up and listen to him, he will stand and tell me about himself with the utmost confidence, and no matter who goes by, he does not seem to be ashamed to have people see him talking with me.

A DISASTER IN PARADISE HALL.

The Cause Unknown—Rule No. IV. Broken. The Club's Detective Talent at Work.

[Detroit Free Press.]

No less than five dastardly attempts have been made within the last five years to blow Paradise hall into the middle of next week, and now the list is to be added to and the crowning attempt particularized.

Nearly all the members of the Lime Kiln club had gathered in the hall, and in five minutes more the triangle would have sounded for the meeting to open. Brother Gardner and Sir Isaac Walpole were earnestly discussing the subject of transmigration, and Giveadam Jones and Elder Toots were ending a game of checkers. Pickles Smith, Elder Penstock, Whalebone Howker and other members were matching pennies, and a general atmosphere of peace and contentment pervaded the room. An outsider would have said there was no sin there, and even the closest observer would have failed to detect the least evidence of an overshadowing sorrow.

The huge building was suddenly shaken.

Such was the situation when the huge building was suddenly shaken as if by an earthquake. Plaster showered down, window glass rattled and shivered, the bear traps swung wildly to and fro, and from brackets and shelves and niches busts of Cicero and relics from the pyramids came tumbling to the floor in wild confusion. For an instant every member of the club seemed paralyzed, but as soon as this feeling wore away there was a general yell of dismay and a rush for the door. No attention was paid to rule IV, which reads: "In case this hall is to be vacated with extreme suddenness, owing to fire, flood or other calamity, the president shall have ten feet the start." One wild, dismayed, terror-stricken crowd rushed for the door, but not a man got out. Judge Cadaver and Stepback Johnsing, who had the lead, wedged, stuck fast, and the space was choked.

It was perhaps a good thing, as it gave the members an opportunity to recover their wits. In about two minutes heads, legs and arms began to unite and unfangle, and the jam dissolved. All danger was past. While Paradise hall had been damaged to the extent of $600, and while the club had suffered an appalling loss in sacred and valued relics, no lives had been sacrificed. The nearest approach to it was the case of Judge Cadaver. Some one stood on his neck for about three minutes and deliberately abstracted four razors from his left bootleg.

The fiendish attempt was, of course, at once investigated, but the results did not pan out very much. The only suspicious things discovered were a woman's cotton stocking with a hole in the heel, a pair of blue goggles, a recipe for making ginger ale without any ginger in it, and a can which had either contained peaches or dynamite. The villian, whoever he was, had escaped.

The best detective talent in the club was at once detailed to work the case. Giveadam Jones succeeded in connecting the stocking with a rejected candidate's sister-in-law, but it was soon thereafter ascertained that he never had a relative of that brand. Sir Coddington Dejlex discovered that the goggles were exactly like a pair worn by a colored man, who was drowned in Lake Erie three years ago, but could get no further. It was quite evident that he was on the right track to connect the drowned man with the explosion, but he required time to see his way clear. Samuel Stin laid great stress on the recipe. It had evidently been written out for some confectioner or druggist. His idea was to arrest all such in the city connected with the drug or confectionery business and hold each one in a separate cell until a full confession was made.

Waydown Beebe vigorously asserted that the real clew was in the can, and it was passed around for each member to smell of. It had once been labeled, but the label had been removed in the most careful manner. It might have contained peaches, but how easy for an employe of a canning establishment to slip a pound of dynamite in among the fruit, and for an outside confederate to purchase that very can! He would move that all the employes of all the canning factories in the United States be arrested without delay.

The Rev. Penstock, whose paper collar had been entirely ruined, and whose feelings were greatly harrowed up, believed in taking an underhand advantage. He would advertise in all the respectable newspapers as follows:

"Fifty Thousand Dollars.—The party who made the dastardly attempt to blow up Paradise hall the other night will hear of something to his advantage by addressing the secretary of the club. Please communicate at once, or the legacy may pass into other hands."

He argued that the villain would instantly jump to the conclusion that he had a soft thing on hand, and would straightway fall into the snare.

More than a score of members advanced theories and secured clews, and some little confusion was created by Elder Toots rising up and asserting that the real criminal probably belonged to the club, and commanding him to at once stand up and make a full confession. Nobody took advantage of his invitation, and the president said:

"Gem'len, I hev faith dat de unhung villyian will ultimately be punished. It may not be for five years, or even a thousand years, but he'll git it in de end. Meanwhile we can't be too thankful ober dis escape. Giveadam Jones an' Waydown Beale am pinted a committee to assess financhul damages; Rev. Penstock an' Judge Cadaver will consult wid de perlece, an' Trustee Pullback an' Sundown Smith will take posseshun of de can an' seek to diskiber its contents. Let us now adjourn."

How the Revival Season is Ushered In.

[Arkansaw Traveler.]

The revival season is not a great distance in the future. The revival season is dear to every country boy, for it brings an epoch of semi-rest from exhaustive field duties, and also brings a decided improvement in the quality of his daily bread. It is well that once a year, at least, people should think less of this world and more of the future; and it is exceedingly meet that the youth, scampering in rusty boyhood, should have a chance to fill himself to the brim with the sweet stuff for which he has longed. The revival season is ushered in by the loud squawk of the yellow-legged hen. Shrewd creature, she knows that her time is short. She knows that her corpse will soon bob up and down in a pot of bleeding water. She knows that her offspring that came into the world before the May apples blossomed will soon be fried and spread upon an old-fashioned, blue-rimmed dish. It is this knowledge—this intuition that wrings from her bosom—or rather her white meat—the cry of distress.

Cowardice Then and Now.

[Life.]

The Romans deemed long hair in men a sign of cowardice. But in these days of martial unpleasantness it is considered quite the reverse.

Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for allaying all irritation of the nerves, and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly

"Some form of Hops!!!"

CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; Bright's disease, diabetes, retention, or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically, "Buchu!!!"

Ask the same physicians

What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malaria, fever, ague, &c.," and they will tell you

Mandrake! or Dandelion!!!!

Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable,

And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed, which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is

CHICAGO AND NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY.

THE BEST ROUTE AND SHORT LINE BETWEEN Omaha, Council Bluffs & Chicago.

The only line to take for Des Moines, Marshalltown, Cedar Rapids, Clinton, Dixon, Chicago, Milwaukee, and all points East. To the people of Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and California, it offers superior advantages not possible by any other line.

Among a few of the numerous points of superiority enjoyed by the patrons of this road between Omaha and Chicago, are its two trains of DAY COACHES, which are the finest that human art and ingenuity can create; its PALACE SLEEPING CARS, which are models of comfort and elegance; its PARLOR DRAWING ROOM CARS, unsurpassed by any; and its widely celebrated PALATIAL DINING CARS, the equal of which cannot be found elsewhere.

At Council Bluffs the trains of the Union Pacific Ry. connect in Union Depot with those of the Chicago & Northwestern Ry. In Chicago the trains of this line make close connection with those of all Eastern lines.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

While the TIMES is always prepared to give publicity to the views of correspondents on any question of interest to the public, provided facts are given, couched in unobjectionable language, we wish it to be understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the views expressed by the writers thereof.

Nor can we give room to duplicates of letters that have appeared in our contemporaries either in this city or elsewhere in the province. Correspondents, therefore, will save time and trouble in preparing such for THE TIMES, as they will be rejected.

Our space is valuable, and brevity, as far as possible, should be observed in writing on any topic, and on one side of the sheet only.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Some valuable dogs are offered for sale. See ad.

—The man Bridge was again locked up to-day. He will be sent away.

—W. Dalton & Co. announce an auction sale for Saturday morning.

—Before purchasing Real Estate or insuring your life, see Rand Bros.

—Rand Bros. advertise a sawmill with a capacity of 15,000 feet per day for sale at a big bargain. Sale by tender.

—Mr. D. Spencer, at the Commerce House, is making preparations for a grand display on Saturday.

—The balance of the stock-in-trade of the Kwong Lee estate will be sold by G. Byrnes, auctioneer, to-morrow.

—Messrs. R. Ward & Co., offer to the trade a special line of Havana cigars, and also liquors at the old prices.

—Steamer Idaho arrived from Tacoma to-day, bringing the complete machinery for the Victoria Rice Mills.

—The returns of the Canadian Pacific Railway for August 14th to 21st, show an increase of $42,000 over the same period last year.

—A despatch from Ottawa says that Gen. Middleton will leave for this province in the course of a few days to look into the condition of the defences. A new battery will be established.

—The next attraction in the theatrical line will be Alma Stuart Stanley, who appears in "Painting the Town Red" Company. The play is a most popular one.

—The Winnipeg Manitoban has obtained the opinion of the editors of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories as to the right disposition to be made of Riel. They all say, "Hang him."

—A southwest wind has blown away the smoke, and this afternoon for the first time in many days Victorians caught a glimpse of the hills beyond the city and the blue sky above.

—The Idaho, which has been awaiting the arrival of the Ancon, unable to postpone her sailing any longer, left Portland at 4 p. m. yesterday for Alaska and way ports.

—The Tacoma News comes to hand in an enlarged form and otherwise improved. It has recently passed under the management of George R. Epperson & Co., who promise to make it a live journal. It has our best wishes.

—Some of the clans who left by the Yosemite yesterday, slept on board the steamer all night, in order to make an early start and also to be sure they would be in time. The steamer left at 1:30 the following day. Our Scotch friends sometimes do get there ahead of time.

—Captain D. C. Weston, who arrived at Port Townsend on Sunday morning on the British ship Narwhal, died on Monday evening. He was a native of Yarmouth, N. S. He was part owner of the ship he commanded, and released the command yesterday to his brother, Geo. W. Weston, now at Port Ludlow.

—Last Sunday a special freight train of sixteen cars departed from Tacoma over the Northern Pacific, bound for Canada. It had been loaded from the custom house with bonded salmon. There were 9200 cases of two dozen cans each, or in all 124,200 cans. They were put up in this province.

—Dr. Taylor, who left a week ago to meet Mrs. Taylor in Portland, returned to-day, and has resumed his practice. Mrs. Taylor, unfortunately, was taken ill after leaving Council Bluffs and returned to her home at Chicago. When she recovers, which it is hoped will be at an early day, she will join her husband in this city.

—While the firemen were pulling down the building on Yates street, the fire alarm sounded. All the fire department turned out quickly, and the engine and trucks were half-way to James Bay when the news came that the fire had been put out. It started in a room of Mr. Williams' residence, in James Bay, but was discovered an extinguished before it had got any headway.

—Mr. Jas. Medill, of the Chicago Tribune came to Tacoma from Portland last Thursday for the express purpose of seeing the mountains, but was compelled to return on Sunday much disappointed at the obstinacy of the smoke, which hangs like a pall over the whole Northwest. Mr. Medill has since left overland for California, and will not visit Victoria.

—There is quite a romance, says the Tacoma News, connected with a recent marriage in this city. Rev. Mr. Bell, of Semiamoo, B. C., arrived in town last Wednesday, and met his lady friend, Miss Georgia Carney, of Toronto, Ont., whom he had not seen for five years. They immediately proceeded to the Episcopal church and were united in marriage by Rev. L. H. Wells, assisted by Rev. F. J. Vincent. The couple left town on Thursday morning for their home in British Columbia.

—Mr. Alexander Ross, who left on Monday for Alexander Cowan, A. Dobie, J. Olson, H Mansell, Rev Father Jonckim, Marvin & Tilton, M R & Tye, J Weiler, Albion Iron Works, D E McIntyre, H Eickhoff, McDonald Bros. F Sickhull, George Montobio, Brown Bros, J H Lovell, J B Shutle, D McPherson, J A Mara, Brewster & Co, Powers Bros, W R Austin, H Jewell, S Leiser, A Burns, F H Noble, Neufelder & Ross, D E Campbell, W J Wilson, Young Bros, B Lettice, Equitable P Society, W R Austin, S J Pitts, T McNulty, Gutman & Frank, McQuade, Clapperson, Coner & Son, B City P M Co, C McDougall.

Torn Down.

As intimated last night, the old frame building on Yates street, owned by Mr. Yates, were torn down, as ordered by the City Council. Then firemen turned out and completed the work of demolition in a short time. The stock of grain and provender of Delaney & Co. was removed previously. The building was rented for about $15 per month; once, in the flush time at Cariboo, it brought $250 per month. With its disappearance another old land mark has gone, and THE TIMES won't regret it every other eye-sore of the same kind in the city is soon made to vanish before the new progress of the present. A respect for "venerable old buildings," or an antiquarian love for an antiquated old shanty, is perhaps good enough in its place, but its place must not be in Victoria.

THE FORESTERS.

Meeting of the High Court of Ontario at Ottawa.

The High Court of Ontario Independent Order of Foresters, was convened on the 25th ultimo, in the City Hall, Ottawa, High Chief Ranger, W. W. Fitzgerald, of London, in the chair. The High Chief Ranger presented his annual report, which stated that the year had been marked by the utmost harmony. During the year ending 30th June last, 19 courts had been formed under Ontario jurisdiction, and the membership had increased over 500. Amounts due to survivors had been promptly paid in nearly all cases within a week from the decease and in some cases before his interment. The High Secretary submitted his report, which showed that the order had increased from a membership of 369 fourteen years ago to 2084 at the present time. The utmost harmony exists in the brotherhood and the year closed had been one of marked progress. The present state of the order showed a membership of 2344, of which 883 had been initiated during the year, from which had to be deducted thirteen deceased and 317 under suspension, leaving a membership in good standing of 2084. The finances were never in so good a position.

THE WANDERERS RETURN

The Authorities Decline a Present of Sixteen Chinese.

A few days ago the United States authorities found sixteen Chinamen camped in the woods near Dungeness. In a canoe proximity was a sailing craft, and the officers picking this and that together and deciding that the craft had conveyed the John from B. C. forthwith seized the said craft and John also. To-day the United States Marshal, having the Chinamen in charge, arrived by the Olympian and proposed to land them at this port. A decided objection was raised by the customs authorities here to a free entry and as Uncle Sam's representative declined to pay up $50 a head, the Celestials were duly returned by steamer. Where they will be deposited finally is still a problem, but in the meantime John is taking a salt water voyage at some other person's expense.

The Geological Survey.

The work of examining the various mining districts of Cariboo is progressing under Mr. A. Bowman, of the Dominion Geological Survey. The design is to map out the placer mines where worked and denote them on a map, with amounts of gold taken out, and also to locate and determine the extent and worth of quartz ledges. The direction and the extent of the gravel formations will be gathered, and every information that will be of assistance in mining will be clearly shown in map form. Districts that have been worked will be chiefly followed. The benches of the Fraser will also be examined. These were undoubtedly a lake country and extend into the mountains to gravel deposits, some of which contain gold, while others do not. Another feature that will be demonstrated, it is thought, is that the rich mineral deposits which present south also exist in the districts of the province and northward to Alaska. Of course, this will all have to be determined after winds by the prospector. The age of the gravel deposits will also be determined, whether tertiary, glacial, volcanic or a later period, and it will be shown when and how these deposits were placed in Cariboo. The reports will be printed and given to the public as quickly as made, and the agents at the disposal of the survey are such that this can be readily done.

Difficulties of Navigation.

The difficulty of navigation in our waters during the prevalence of a fog has been fully demonstrated during the past few weeks. The Boscowitz S.S. went overdue, and is supposed to be securely anchored, or tied up to the for, in a safe harbor. The fact that she is commanded by an experienced and careful captain has allayed all anxiety on her account. The Ancon, delayed by fog and finally by a break in her machinery, is now being towed to Nanaimo by the tug Alexander. Yesterday all the steamers leaving this port were delayed for several hours and only got away after several attempts. A telegram from the mainland says that the Teaser which left here on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, only arrived at Ladner's Landing at 11 to-day. The Yosemite, with the excursionists on board, to the New Westminster Scotch picnic, held yesterday, arrived there about 2 this afternoon. It is, perhaps, needless to observe that the excursionists did not witness any of the sports.

Shaftsbury Booming.

Mr. James B. Leighton, of Savona, is in the city to-day. He has visited the new mines on Granite creek and pronounces them very rich. In three days he washed out $24. Two young and inexperienced miners made $2000 in about seventeen days, and many others were making $50 per day with rockers. There is no longer any doubt that rich diggings have been located and as the country is an extensive one, as yet scarcely touched, it is confidently expected by old miners that the best creeks yet remain undiscovered. The gold is coarse, the specimens brought down by Mr. Leighton, resembling in size melon seeds. With a few more such diggings as the Similkameen, and the successful development of our enormous quartz deposits, there will be booming times in British Columbia.

The Gubernatorial Party.

Col. Ball, U. S. District Attorney for Alaska, accompanied by his wife and children, arrived in the city to-day, and will here await the arrival of the Idaho, which sailed from Portland last evening. Captain Bart Aikins, of N. Y., U. S. marshal and deputies, are expected to arrive to-morrow. These gentlemen, along with Governor Swineford and Captain B. [illegible] the N. O. exposition, who have been in the city for some time patiently waiting for transportation to their future home, will embark on the Idaho on her arrival here. Col. Crittenden will also be a member of the party, and a number of other ladies and gentlemen, whose names we did not learn.

Visiting the Triumph.

Governor A. P. Swineford, of Alaska, Captain R. K. Crowe, formerly of the U. S. army, and now commissioner for Alaska to the New Orleans Exposition, and Colonel Stevens, U. S. [illegible] the Triumph yesterday, and were received with due honors by the gallant commander, Admiral Sir M. Culme-Seymour.

The Bark Montana Lost.

The steamer St. Paul, just down from Queralaska, brings word of the stranding at Newhagak, July 27th, of the bark Montana. The bark is believed to be a total loss, and her owners estimate her value at $17,000. The crew were all saved. The Montana was a familiar rooster.

Cricket Match at the Hill.

A cricket match will be played at Beacon Hill on Saturday between the Rest and the Victoria Cricket club. The game will commence at 10:30 o'clock. Between three and five the band of H. M. S. Triumph will be in attendance. A good game will undoubtedly be played.

CITY COUNCIL

Routine Business—Short Session and an Early Adjournment.

Regular meeting of the City Council was held last night. Present: Mayor Bithet and Councillors McKillican Earle, Teague, Ward, Braden and Warren.

Minutes read and approved.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, acknowledging receipt of letter in reference to Mr. Yates' building, and stating that if building is pulled down it will be at the risk of the Council. Laid on table.

From S. H. Holmes, asking use of part of Quadra street for building purposes. Granted.

From T. N. Hibben and others, residents of Meson street, calling attention to its bad condition and asking that it be put in repair. Referred to Street Commissioner.

From the owners of property bordering on Yates street ravine, protesting against the construction of a drain thereto from View street. Laid over until next meeting, with an answer on the right of Council to drain to the ravine be received from the City Barrister.

From J. H. Gray, complaining that his fence had been thrown down by the contractor for rock blasting. Referred to Street Committee to see that fence is replaced.

From Yates & Jay, stating effect of injunction in the application of Messrs McLean and others, for an injunction to restrain Council granting water to outside parties. Received and filed.

ACCOUNTS.

Bills for the month of August, aggregating $[illegible] were read and referred to the Finance Committee, to be paid if found correct.

MOTIONS.

Councillor Teague moved, seconded by Councillor McKillican that each of the Assistant Assessors be paid $100 additional.

Councillor Teague explained that this motion was simply to legalize the previous action of the Council in giving $100 not to give a second hundred.

THE POUND.

Report of the Pound Committee presented, exonerating keeper from blame in the matter formerly complained of. Report received.

Report from the Pound Committee recommending that the pound be removed to the city property at Spring Ridge, as the only place available.

Councillor Ward said the question of cost was a consideration, and moved that the report be referred back to the committee to ascertain amount the change would involve. Carried.

FIRE LIMITS.

The Fire Wardens reported in reference to the removal of the old buildings on Yates street, and the proceedings that had been taken. Also in reference to Mr. Hambly's building on Government street, which was contrary to the by-law. Report adopted.

CITY WATER.

Councillor Ward gave notice of a by-law carrying out the resolution of last meeting in regard to water to parties outside of the city.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Councillor McKillican moved that Lockwen & Eckhardt be required to erect a fence around the excavation on their property, corner of Government and Broughton streets. Carried.

Councillor Teague moved that similar action be taken in regard to the property on Johnson and Government streets. Carried.

Councillor Earle suggested that as the Fire Wardens were on the war-path, they should notify Mr. Hambly to remove the wooden building now in course of erection on Broughton street.

Councillor Warner and the building inspector had been notified in the matter. Council adjourned.

HOME AFFAIRS

As Discussed by a Newspaper at the Capital.

The Ottawa Free Press of a late date thus discourseth on British Columbia affairs: "The land in the railway belt of British Columbia is now in the market and an office for the administration of Dominion lands will be opened in New Westminster as soon as surveys, which are now proceeding, are completed. If the cost of deepening and improving the mouth of the Fraser river for the admission of vessels of deep draught is not too much, then an effort will be made to get a government appropriation for that purpose. It is also proposed to construct a canal between Mud Bay and the Fraser river. The present distance between Mud Bay and New Westminster is 50 miles, but by the construction of the canal the distance would be reduced to eight miles. If the lands in the railway belt are Dominion lands, then it is urged that the federal authorities should open up the country by a system of roads. Surveys are now going forward to have a branch railway from New Westminster and an extension to Coal Harbor, both to make close connection with the mail line of the C. P. R. The routes have not been definitely determined. It is not known whether any part of the C. P. R. in British Columbia has been accepted by the government. It is believed, however, that the government has taken over the section between Port Moody and Emory subject to the performance of certain works considered necessary to the fulfilment of the contract. But the government does not seem to declare the road open for traffic and will not assume the responsibility."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Wm. Hazard, an old pioneer, left for a visit to his native country, Ireland, at noon to-day. He will return in the spring, and not alone.

The Eliza Anderson brought the following passengers from Victoria: [illegible] Ford, Indian Agent, [illegible] Wilkinson, W. Hurst and wife, J Smith, S Sturges, Miss E Sprague, Mr O'Neal, S Moore, Sam Ellis, J Smith, A Smith, J Sullivan.

The Olympian brought the following passengers this afternoon: W Anderson, A May, W Barnett, G Ashby, Dr Taylor, J Hamilton, A Thompson, J Thompson, O Brockway, Mrs Brockway, D Rogers, T Howard, R M Hopkins, J J Sparrow, C F DeGarmoyle, M D Ball, wife and four children, Mrs Vanderbalt and two children, B D Crittenden, O Clark, and wife, B C Delaney, C Miller, J Dickinson, Miss [illegible], Miss Dixie, Miss Goodwin, Mrs Leonard, Mrs Martin, E Gold, A Vigor, P Culster, M Clayton, G Lucas, F Loftus, W Deans.

MARINE NOTES.

The iron bark Moltke, from Liverpool, arrived at 10 o'clock this morning.

The sealing schooner W. P. Sayward arrived from the north to-day.

Cries of Murder.

A loud noise was heard proceeding from a building on Fort street at a late hour last night. Cries of "help" and "murder" startled the residents of that locality and some of the policemen on their beats proceeded to the scene to ascertain the cause. No arrests were made, and it may consequently be taken for granted that nothing of a very serious character took place. A repetition of the noise, however, may lead to unpleasant developments.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Electoral Franchise Retrogression

To the Editor of The Times:

Qualification of Voters; must be twenty one, a British subject, an owner of real property, in cities amounting to three hundred dollars, or in towns or counties of the actual value of $200; or a tenant of real property under lease at monthly rental of $2, a quarterly of $6, half yearly of $12, yearly of $20, and has been in possession of said property for one year prior to passing of act, or in any subsequent year and thus paid rent regularly, and in all cases must have an ownership and resident or tenant qualification for one year preceding to the right to vote. In case of sons of proper age, step sons, and grandsons of the father or father-in-law, or grandfather, must have property of sufficient value to give to each the necessary qualification as by law provided. Indians living on separate holdings with improvements valued at $150 entitled to vote, also fishermen with similar qualification or ownership value in nets, boats, &c., amounting to $150.

The whole of the foregoing act or resolutions, are an insult to the ever-increasing intelligence of the artizan classes, and introduced with the sinister motive of disfranchising a large portion of the most intellegent of the artizan and clerical class residing in boarding houses and hotels. The restriction of 12 months ownership and tenancy also disfranchises that large migratory element whose ambitious spirits leads to a restless desire for improvement, and whose votes are generally given on principle without realty to party or party prejudices. The act as a whole is a monstrous attempt to retain power, not by the will of the people, but by manipulation and corruption. Will the people tolerate it? I think not; nor can they overlook the fact that Indians and fishermen have a lower qualification than any other class since tenement Indians are enfranchised, equal to those of tenement whites. That Mr. Shakespeare should attempt to unravel the monstrosity is not surprising, and to have proved himself capable of doing so would have surprised even his most ardent admirers.

CANADIAN PRISONS.

What Chief Inspector J. G. Moylan Says of Chinese Crime.

Mr. J. G. Moylan, Inspector of Penitentiaries, arrived on the Elder yesterday and immediately boarded the Yosemite, which had been detained by the fog, and proceeded on to New Westminster to inspect the penitentiary there. Mr. Moylan is reported to have said that the growing population of this province demands an increase in prison accommodation, and that the Chinese portion of the population is furnishing a large part of the offenders that make the increase necessary. He has visited many of the penitentiaries of the United States on previous trips, including Joliet, which he considers a model institution. En route he visited the military prison at Leavenworth, that being regarded as one of the best of the kind in the world. On his return the inspector will visit the penitentiary at Winnipeg in October. In general conversation he said that the use of the "cat" was allowed in Canadian penitentiaries under the direction of trustworthy and judicious men. He would be sorry to see its use done away with altogether, as it was the final way of treating rebellious prisoners. He thinks if it were used more frequently for certain crimes, brutal assaults on young girls would be much less frequent. Relative to the young criminals he says that there is apparently no desire on the part of the boys to be tough, and to become criminals. In the east there are a number of reformatories for boys between the ages of 8 and 16 years, and these reformatories are doing great good. The boys there learn trades and become good citizens, with the exception of a few who inherit criminality, a theory in which he is a strong believer.

POLICE COURT.

(Before Edwin Johnson, Esq., S. M.)

D. M. Steres, charged with being of unsound mind, was remanded for two days.

Chas. Mayo, charged with having no visible means of support, was fined $50 or three months imprisonment.

Chas. Seeley and Wm. Leary were charged some time ago with being in possession of goods, the property of another man. The charge was withdrawn.

Fought for Her, then Tossed for Her.

Two respectable young men aspired to win the affections of one of Toronto's fair daughters. They decided to fight the matter out, the winner to be relieved of the rivalry of the loser. They met in Harry Gilmore's boxing school, each having his quota of friends. Seconds and an umpire were chosen, the lovers put on the gloves and pummelled each other savagely, four rounds being fought. They then mutually concluded they had enough. The umpire suggested as neither had the advantage, that they should toss up for the sole right to woo the fair lady, which was done and all ended happily.

Music Lessons.

A young lady who has had the advantage of receiving instruction in music from Professor Oliver King, (Pianist to Princess Louise) is desirous of obtaining a limited number of music pupils, and will give lessons at her residence, or if desired at their own homes. For particulars enquire at M. W. Waitt's music store.

The gloomy fears, the desponding views, the weariness of soul that many complain of, would often disappear were the blood made pure and healthy before reaching the delicate vessels of the brain. Ayer's Sarsaparilla purifies and vitalizes the blood; and thus conduces to health of body and sanity of mind.
